NEW EMPLOYEE?

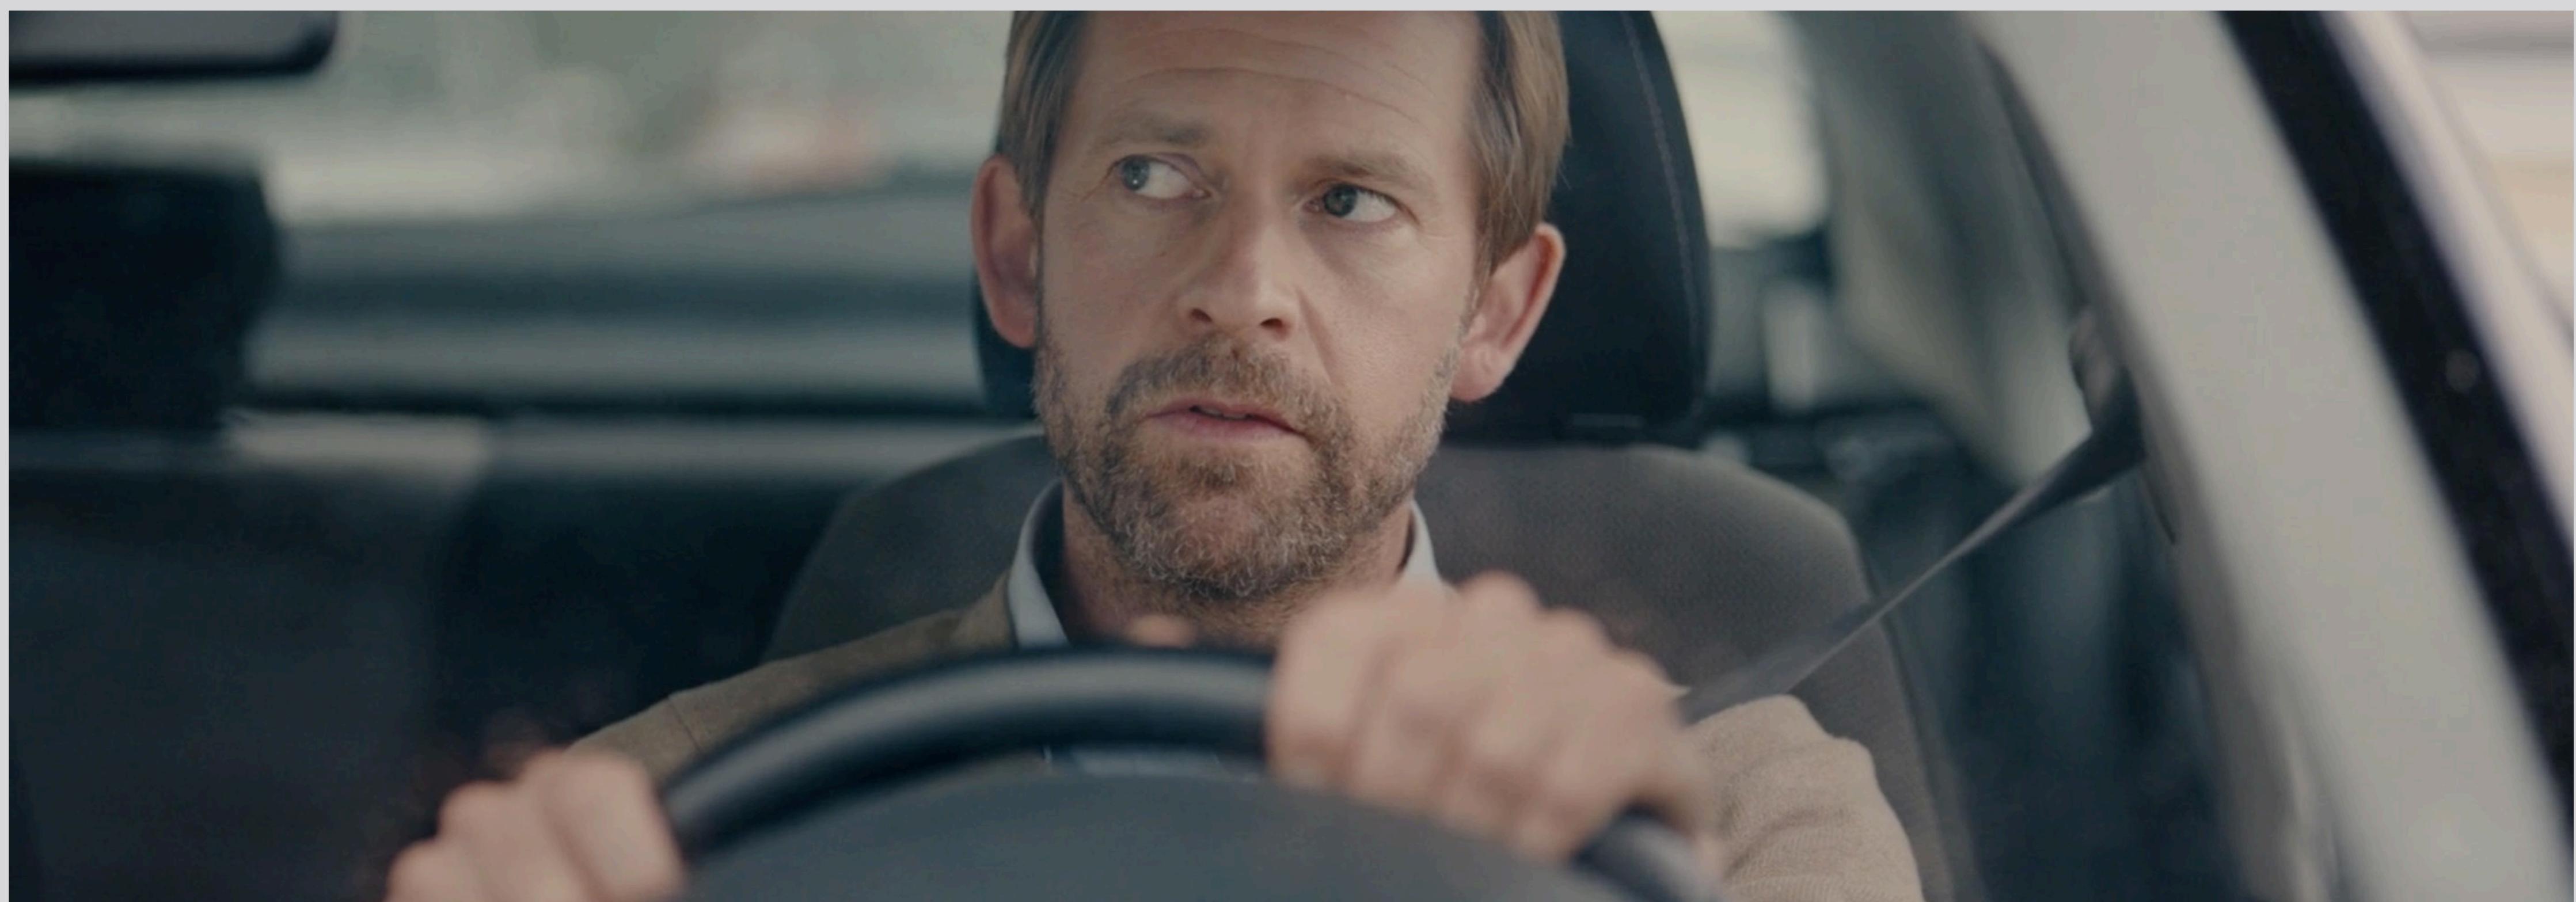

A man with short brown hair and a light beard is leaning out of the open rear hatchback of a dark-colored car. He is wearing a maroon sweater vest over a white and blue checkered shirt, and a red patterned tie. He is holding a green coffee cup in his right hand. He is looking towards the camera with a neutral expression. The background consists of a dense forest of trees with autumn-colored leaves. The overall lighting is natural, suggesting it is daytime.

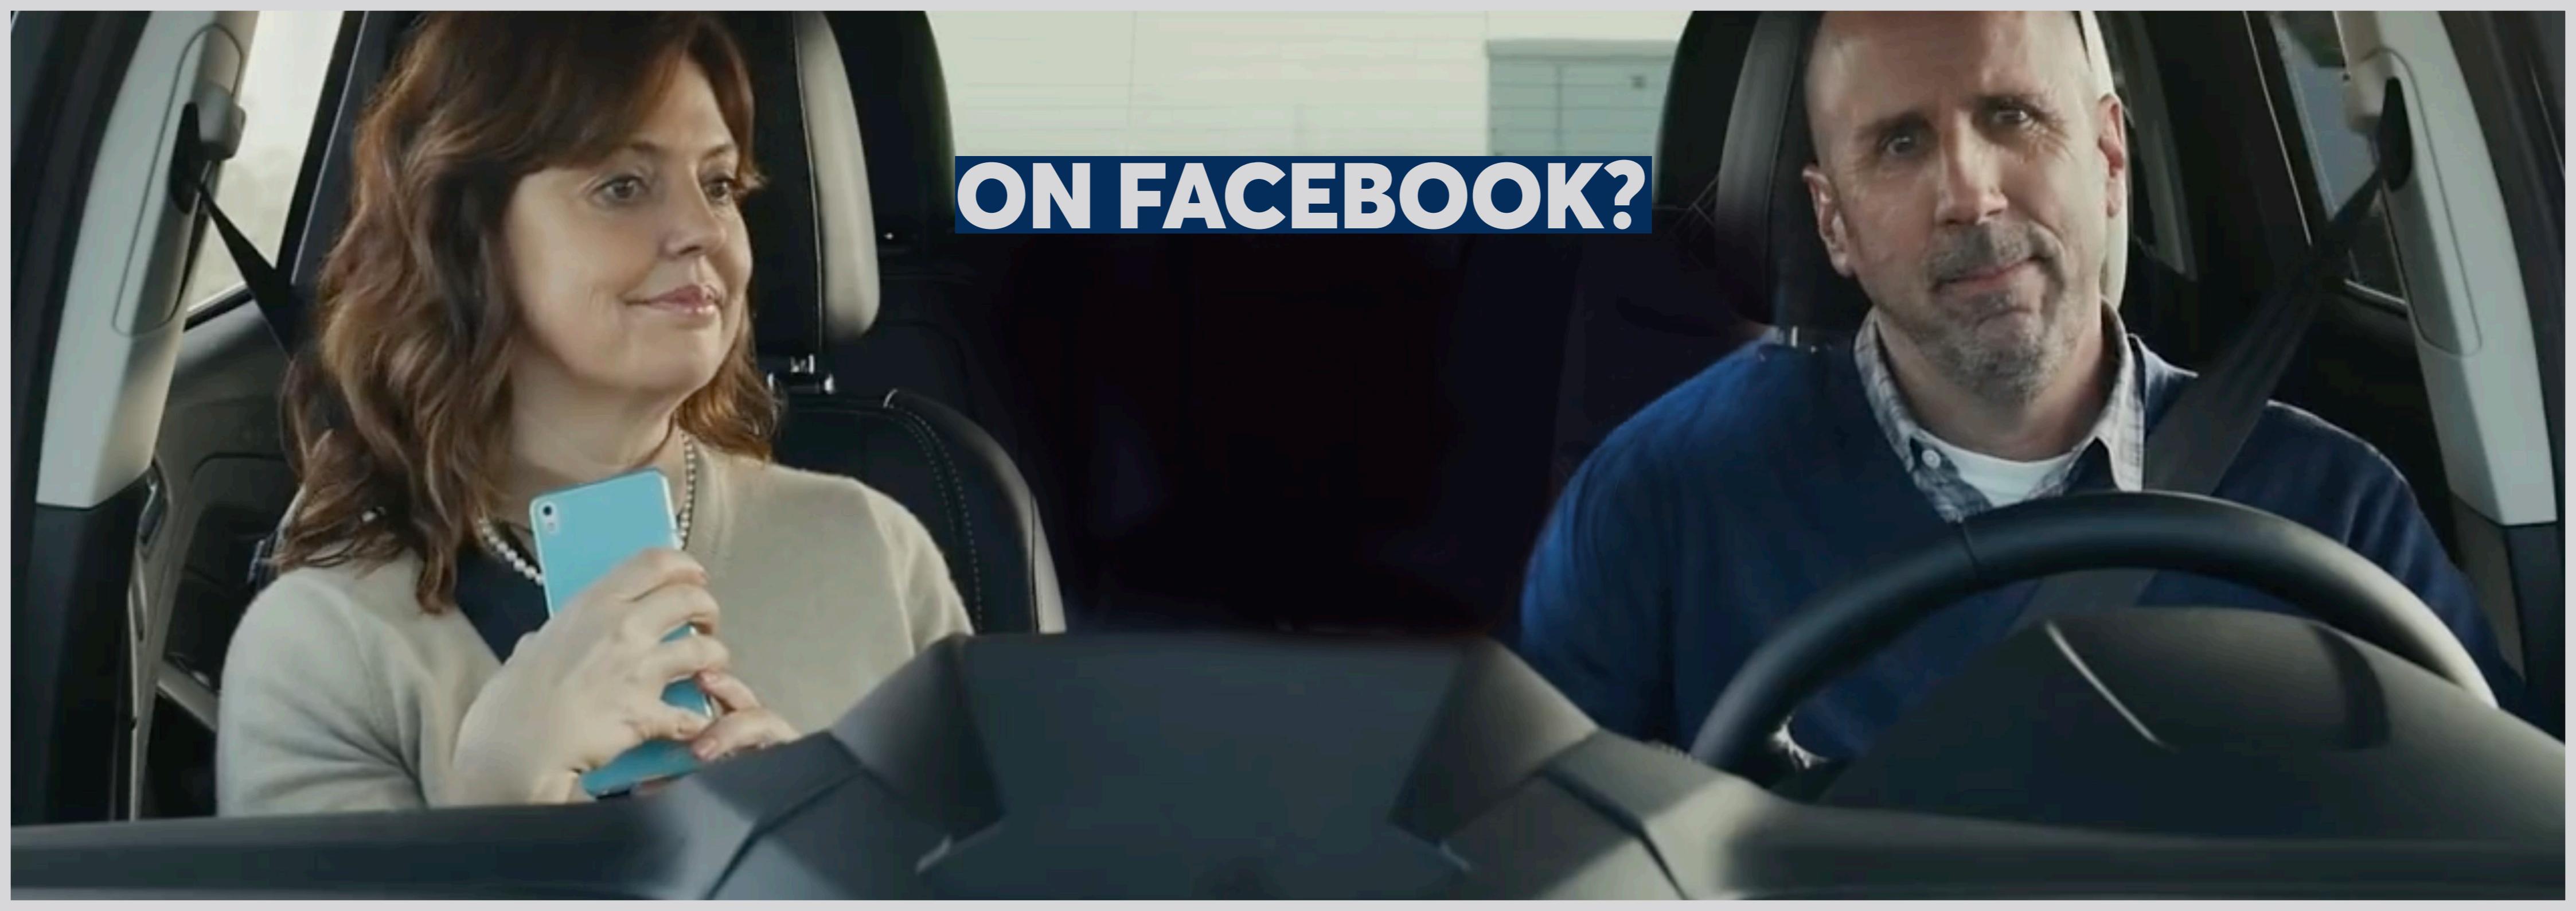

THE CANNONBALL

A woman with long brown hair, wearing a light-colored top, sits in the passenger seat of a car, looking down at a blue smartphone. A man with a beard and mustache, wearing a dark blue shirt, is driving the car. The background shows a blurred landscape through the car windows.
